When the spikes are five or six feet high, they should Preparing and Delivering Technical Presentations stopped by cutting off a piece of the top : some little experience is requisite to perform this operation judiciously ; it should be managed so as to leave from three to four feet of bloom on the spike when full grown, and so that, when the upper buds expand, the summit of the spike may be completely closed over with bloom. Mensajes al Editor. I am glad you mentioned
